

CYBER FOR THE LEGAL SECTOR

Evolver has changed the way organizations approach the cyber threat, and nowhere is this more critical than with law firms. We quantify cyber risk in monetary terms and then provide end to end solutions to protect today's corporations.

Following our Cyber Risk Ecosystem, we:

- » Apply state of the art technologies to calculate business risk
- » Correlate the risk to quantitative dollars
- » Develop and implement plans to reduce the risk
- » Monitor internal and external environments

Just like other risk areas, our approach reduces the risk and impact of the cyber threat and provides measurable objectives for short- and long-term planning and evaluation.
